(In meditation

Vision of St. Therese of the Child Jesus, very beautiful, very present.

She said to me.)

I have been sent by your beloved."

St. Therese of the Child Jesus

(It seems to me that she did something above my head, without any further information.)

Sunday, August 16, 1998 - 10:30 a.m.

It is not your sense of rigour that makes you move forward, it is love. It is your strength, your great strength. Never change. You know what I said about love. [My Master, page 80]. It is the world's driving force. When love prevails really on the Earth, it will pursue its planetary evolution. It settles, also, a kind of karma. The universal laws apply to all things."

The Medium: "Babuji, did I transcribe your message well?"

"Yes, you have done well; commune with yourself as much as possible today. You are my beloved daughter."
