Sunday, September 27, 1998 - 10:25 a.m.

A new spirit seems to emerge among the abhyasis. The visit and the speeches of my son have made things move. One should never stop one's soul-searching. That is necessary for each one's evolution. A spiritual path requires constantly renewed efforts. The will is the driving force for moving forward. Faith and love are the torches illuminating the way, but it's hard and even testing to walk if one really wants to forge ahead. Each one has one's free will; we cannot force anybody. The system is at your disposal and we help those who are sincere in their process. Your fate lies in your hands. Whatever the means, your chosen pace, we bless you in your undertaking. The pure hearts will see the light; it's up to you to choose your way. Be in peace and in harmony with your brothers; thus will be laid the stones of a solid way, which you will be able to walk upon. My daughter, keep heart; do not sink into despair. I bless you. Enlightened souls will see one day who you are, and they will do their best to help you. We are doing everything possible to this effect. We love you."

Babuji