Friday, October 2, 1998 - 10:35 a.m.

Doors are opening for you, my child. It remains for you to do what is appropriate. You know what you should know. We are with you. Your life will change; it will take on its true meaning. You are entrusted with a mission, even if it is not necessarily visible. We, we know. Do your level best. Your heart is touched by God's grace. It becomes the playing field of the Divine. We all rejoice for you. Be happy."

Babuji

Monday, October 5, 1998

The Medium: "Forgive me, my God, for anything I may have done which you didn't like..."

We forgave you since you are liberated."

Babuji