Thursday, November 5, 1998 - 10:30 a.m.

The Medium: "What is happening in the world is dreadful. Towards where are we heading, Babuji?"

Very hard times, [...] France will not be spared, life there will be no bed of roses. I am happy to see you attracting many souls through me. I like your little meeting. You have my blessings. Make your abhyas well, it is important. Be a little patient for the ashram; it is being rebuilt, we see to it. As for Patrick, what he thinks about the messages does not matter. He is going his own way, while you are following yours. One day, you will meet up.

"That is the way it goes."

(In the afternoon with Francoise and Anne-Marie, we meditate. Babuji has come and said to me.)

"We are preparing you for a special work. Your friends will benefit from it and they benefit from it already; you may wish to inform them."

Babuji