Sunday, November 8, 1998 - 10:30 a.m.

We are satisfied with 'your work'. You have yet a long way to go, but 'the way' is large, now. It remains for you to continue in this direction. Surrender well, as regards what we expect of you. You know that there is a lot to do in the ashram for it to become this headlight in the heart of the city, as we have already indicated. Our aspirants do not practice enough, except for a few exceptions. Modern life does not encourage contemplation, even among the most gifted people; they are distracted from the goal by a thousand temptations. Each person should be given time to become aware of his potential, and the greatness of this 'way'. It leads to the highest level, if one practices heartily, with faith and perseverance. Sahaj Marg is a great wave of purity, which, one day, will refresh the world. Continue my child, with ardour; time is short, make efforts. We are with you. We bless you. I will come back."

Babuji

(He came back in the afternoon during a meditation with Francoise and Jean Luc.)