(In meditation.)

You are a group within the group. A work is being done on each one. Each of you will know what to do, when the time comes. I am very satisfied; remain in serenity. Do well your practice."

The Medium: "Should I tell them all this, Babuji?"

"According to you, why do I give you this message? Be blessed, my daughters. You are like a source of light which flows without your knowledge. Not everyone can perceive it, but it achieves its goal; that's the main thing. Don't worry about your health problems."
