Friday, January 1, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

(Excerpts.)

You are entering the most important stage of your life. Consider yourself as his disciple henceforth. I am happy to see you have reached this level. Your connection with the Masters is established. Realize how lucky you are. You can thank Babuji; he is the saviour of both of us. Henceforth, you are no longer entitled to make mistakes; weigh your words, be sober in your comments, try to speak as if He were in front of you."

Francois

(Babuji goes on, saying:)

"I know all that can seem heavy, but there is a price to be paid for everything. An exhibition item has a different value than a functional object.

"Such is your lot now. Don't complain about this, but do not be afraid to displease. We are not torturers. You know how much we are indulgent towards you.

"Bathe in grace, my child. Throughout this day, you will feel our presence, thus those who will be close to you, will benefit from our blessings."

Babuji