That's good, my daughter. You have realized what remains for you to do; the road is long and fraught with obstacles. We appreciate your goodwill and your eagerness to do better. We help you. Are you going to have doubts again?

"You have captured correctly what we wished to express. This Basant is a true success; many souls have awoken. We are happy. Each one received according to their inner attitude. Only that which is ready to receive can be filled. This celebration had a very large impact across the Earth. It actually needs it; it's a little like a balm on its wounds. Blessings for you and those to whom you will read these lines."

Babuji

"I have effectively come to visit you as Babuji told you; be happy."

Lalaji

The Medium: "Thank you, Revered Lalaji, and you, Babuji, for choosing me as an instrument."

"When it is good, why refrain from using it?"

Babuji

(He laughs.)
