Wednesday, March 31, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

Be like a feather in the wind, let yourself be swept away without putting up resistance to our work. You are shifting to another level; it is good to comply with our request. Therese of Lisieux spoke about soldiers and fighting; indeed, it's about the fighting of the forces of good against the forces of evil. There are more things than ever to do on this poor Earth. Be united in prayer; every one should do what is possible, and above all, do it with all your heart.

"You are nearing very hard times; a destructive process is under way. Be mobilized, be passive soldiers, but united, available and active with the means you have. The great fight of your favourite saint took place behind the scenes, through prayer and surrender to the Divine. She did a lot; she is known the world over.

"Do all your best; great actions may not be necessary. This is not easy to understand, but you should know that, in spirit, you can achieve a great deal. Be united; go beyond your differences and your disagreements. Think well about it and do what you can."

Babuji