Saturday, April 3, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

My child, you are getting through a critical step. Our union is more complete. We have already come a long way together. Rest on my heart, you need it.

"We cannot spare you what you are going through, we are sad for that, but we know that it is for your good. When you come to join us in this brighter world, you will thank us forever. Spend this day as well as possible."

Babuji