You are going through a difficult stage. We surround you in a particular way. You will soon benefit from all this work. You are purifying yourself; your various bodies are being divinized. Do not hesitate to write it; it's reality. You will arouse envy, but has it not been always the case throughout your life? We are moulding your soul like a precious stone, so that it becomes a pure jewel. Can't we be satisfied with our work?

"You will have to get well accustomed to this kind of comment about you. Do as if you were not concerned, thus you will not feel embarrassed! Be at peace, my child.

"See you tomorrow."
