We have almost reached this day which you all have been expecting. What else can be said? The preparations have been successful. Things are looking good.

"We would love to see our associates happy, enjoying these moments of grace to the full. Thus would you all have made a step forward. This moment will leave its mark on your hearts; they will be stamped somehow. We will necessarily be able to recognize you; you will be in our 'camp', in our wake. Such a moment will be unforgettable. It will remain engraved forever on the book of time. The divine blessing will manifest itself in all its splendour.

"Continue to prepare yourself."
