Monday, May 17, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't become alarmed too much by these remarks. There is a time for everything. In the face of all prophecies being made, we must warn you and not frighten you. Certain catastrophes are possible; they will perhaps be avoided. Try to remain calm and follow your path, each day.

"Which human can change the course of the things when a fire of this kind is lit? Only faith and hope in God must guide your life whatever the events.

"Be surrendered to the Divine Providence."

Babuji