You have been always so courageous; you are not going to collapse now! Pull yourself together. That cannot comfort you, but you have set an example for those who can see beyond appearances. You are not easy to understand; some are mistaken in this. Do not lose heart, my daughter. You are at the same time strong and fragile in your body like a precious mechanism. Only wise people can understand it.

"Try to react and put into practice what we have mentioned above. Do not have vain fears, which hurt you; accept the present, only it. Surrender, we love you and bless you."
