ou serve us; it would be time for you to become really aware of that. It is not about a material and quantifiable work; we are beyond these concepts. You are so much afraid to have misconceptions that you do not realise actual facts.

"You are a channel for us with multiple functions: the one you perform every day in relation to these messages, but there are others, which you cannot really identify.

"Never mind; let the work be done that is being done inside you – and which you are not aware of. You let us act as we please and we so do. You are a relay; we need incarnate beings completely available and offered to the divine action.

"Do not change my child; remain surrendered and grateful for the graces you receive."
