Sunday, June 6, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Without an incarnate Master with a real spiritual dimension, you cannot reach higher levels. It is all these various aspects already alluded to which form a whole. It is the Master who guides you, who relieves you of your samskaras and, in the end, makes you go through the barrier of fire. At that stage, nothing can be done without a guide of this stature. We had already elaborated on these principles in our books. Even though you may have read them, perhaps you were not ready to understand this, as you could not think of reaching this most important point one day.

"Sahaj Marg is no pastime for amateurish abhyasis. It is a pastime for some abhyasis, but we are aiming much higher for the majority of you. We have told you many times: humanity will be saved only by spirituality. Therefore, you should unite; be among those combatants who work behind the scenes, not only for their own progress, but for the good of all.

"You can make things progress by helping us. Let faith grow in you; your desire to act must translate into a broad base and sustained action. Take one step, the Master will make you take the next one. Step by step, the magic line will be crossed. You will be amazed, happy, in an indescribable way. We would like to see you all in this frame of mind. Through this dream, we see the realization of our objectives. The action of my son, your Master, is powerful. We join our forces, our means, at various levels, so that you all will manage to feel, according to your receptivity, this great wave of divine energy suffuse in you completely.

"May your enthusiasm merge into ours for the achievement of this imposing project, and may it give you wings. We wish you could hear us. Our blessings are bestowed on you."

Babuji