Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, March 17, 2000 - 8:30 a.m.

Are you not unconventional in terms of certain sides of your personality? So why are you so much disturbed by what happens to you? You are used to living what few humans can experience; what are you afraid of? To be a victim of your imagination, that is not like you.

"Would it not be simpler for you to await developments with confidence? Did I not tell you one day that you would have some more surprises ahead? Remember, you did not think of this possibility!

"We are convinced that your children-in-heart will not be surprised and that they will adhere immediately to these comments.

"You wish to stand back and wait and see how the situation will evolve; we understand that.

"That you need a little time to get accustomed to it is a positive and wise reaction, as your principles command you not to confuse dream and reality.

"You are not dreaming, my dear daughter; you should know well that I also faced reactions similar to yours in certain circumstances."
