Our core preoccupation is with my son; the Mission is expanding in the world and his responsibilities are increasing accordingly. If on the material level that poses a problem, spiritually speaking it is a success. To see taking shape what you have come on the Earth for and its thriving, is a source of great joy. Also, knowing that we appreciate what he is achieving is another source of joy. There remains an enormous work to be achieved at the human level. Nothing is simple in this area. Where there are two individuals, problems start arising, let alone for all the abhyasis in the world! It is in the nature of things; that is how man is made. His complicated nature must manifest itself so that he becomes aware of some reactions, which he is not well in control of. The purpose of our work is to help him to redevelop his personality according to other criteria. As he grows in knowledge, his personality gets purified and the results become visible. Even until the end of his life, it remains for him to lead a battle of which, sooner or later, he must come out victorious. We see to it. May the breath of the spirit extend over the world and regenerate it."
