Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Tuesday, June 19, 2001 - 4:00 p.m.

You should understand well that each test is formative and necessary to your evolution. We have said it time and again as this principle is the foundation of everything. Be edified in this aspect and respectful of the game whose renewed developments punctuate your life. You cannot escape from it; therefore you should participate better in its vagaries willingly. Make sure you appreciate each moment, whatever it is; it has its importance. Wise people thank God for placing them in varied situations where they can show their faith. You can realise, through these comments, how much you must progress to arrive at this stage of surrender.

"Love makes you grow and become stronger to an extent which you cannot even suspect; in some circumstances, it carries you and amazes you. Grace answers this attitude: it elevates you and transforms you. Be happy to be on the way, to have understood where priorities lie and to make your life an edifying example for your brothers who do not have the help of faith.

"Can you imagine your life without it? It would be devoid of interest, of reasons to fight, to fall, to get up again, and set out again with one's heart at rest towards the next obstacle, which one day will be the last!"
