Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, March 20, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

The power of the spirit is growing in you. It operates the transformations which are essential; you should fully consent to this action and support it. Your soul has been calling for it for a long time; it finds a familiar environment, an environment that it was desperately lacking. The exile will be less painful. The blessed soul, hidden from the face of the world like a jewel in its gangue, finds its true life, its fatherland.

"Whatever the time you have yet to spend on Earth, the bonds uniting us are unfailing and permanent. Your heart vibrates in the divine light that bathes our world. Be patient, my dear daughter, let us answer your wish of serving us by saying that you are at the right place. Consider yourself as being on a mission far from your country but well united with Him, no matter what happens."
