Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, June 21, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

My daughter, you have done what we expected of you, we are satisfied, your Master too. You are now in the state of mind of a fervent disciple. All our candidates do not arrive at this as soon as they enter the Mission. Most of them have to carry out a very long work before reaching this critical point of sadhana. Full confidence and surrender to the living Master are a major asset. It can take a lot of effort to arrive at this stage; total acceptance is not spontaneous among the majority of our brothers. We are happy to see them in this state of mind. When they have reached it, the situation is no longer the same. Once this fundamental aspect is established, they can advance in greater serenity. We cannot force a soul to make a choice; it must decide itself and act according to its aspirations. When it has reached this decisive stage, it takes a leap and engages itself in a very long career, in complete union with the chosen guide. Another work can then start, as all resistance is abolished. Be blessed especially, you who arrived at this climax of your spiritual process."
