Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, July 5, 1998 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: Babuji, please, give me a message.

ater; meditate.

Babuji

(At the end of the meditation, I call Lalaji and Babuji.)

The Medium: Please, I beg of you, let me out of my cage!

Blessed be this cage where you are preparing your heaven; see it like that. We regret that you are not in good enough health to do what we hoped you would do in the ashram, but 'you are doing something', we have told you this enough. Be strong, accept your destiny, each one has their own; it is a divine gift that must be appreciated. One must always be thankful, as you know, for what one has, and in this regard you really have nothing to complain about. You have our love, you are under 'our protection'. Continue to try to meditate more, it is your weak point.

Blessings from your beloved and from me.

Lalaji

The Medium: Babuji?

Ah no, don't start again, your doubts are tedious; well, we still prefer that to overconfidence. Are you happy with our answer to your request? [About the cage.]

Parthasarathi is also amused by your doubts, he follows you more than you think. As he told you, you have a strong soul-connection. That's enough for today.
