Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 30, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Your Master helps you commensurately with your real awareness about what he is and the extent of his capabilities. For many of you, becoming aware of a fact or a state is mere empty words. This awareness is beyond your reasoning and your will. It is about a turning point – shall we say – which happens when the soul is mature and ready to move to another level of its evolution. Then the real work can start. The complete union between the Master and his disciple is decisive and highly important.

"If you reach this threshold, you can give thanks profusely for the graces bestowed on you. Many are called but few are chosen – so the saying goes. Be aware of how lucky you are to have come this long way and to be able to continue to advance under the best of auguries. Let yourself be carried away on this luminous path. Love your Master, call him intensely, keep knocking at the celestial door, which opens for you by degrees. There is no limit to what you can hope for. Love, love more and more, there is no limit to that.

"Be blessed to read these lines; they are intended for initiates ready to understand them, to feel them very deeply in their heart. You who have been patiently reading us since the beginning, you did not waste your time, even if sometimes this reading left you unsatisfied or, on the contrary, you were tired of it. It made you advance without you realising it. Such is the mystery of a work of this kind, which is not intended for the intellect. Your small reasoning, limited by the barriers of your humanity, leads you on ways likely to delay you. Be confident in us. Do you want to quicken the pace? If so, put aside your tendency to analyse the least events of your spiritual life. It [spiritual life] does not belong to a context that requires the same reflections. Try to go beyond so that once you are released from this twisted mind that slows you down – as far as this matter is concerned – you can meet our wishes and become model disciples.

"With all our blessings."
