Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, July 13, 2001 - 5:00 p.m.

I am here. I do not forget the day that changed my life on this Earth.

"My encounter with you made me discover the pages of a book which I did not know, that it was about a life beyond this one; like many of my fellow creatures, I was thinking this life was the only one. Alas, this belief is very widespread; beings like you who possess this very special gift are helping to inform their fellow creatures of the reality of an incarnation, here below. You changed my life in many respects, and, for this reason, be thanked.

"That thirteenth of July was a fine day; the day you will rejoin us will be an even greater happiness. We have come a long way in knowledge. Our guides make each one of us advance from our respective sides, yet we will meet again since we are moving forward in the same direction. You will be happy to notice how much progress I have made, beyond what you can imagine. I'm very lucky; your Beloved caught sight of me, and since then, I have been proceeding under his higher protection. We can sing his praises; his greatness is such that you cannot imagine it.

"Let's be united in this love, now and forever."
