Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, March 22, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

Each being has a special destiny. It has its own specific path which it must put up with, thus is the infinite subtlety of divine laws. The mould is unique at all levels; only the final destination is the same for all, whatever the complexity of the process.

"Meeting a high level Master is a rare opportunity. One should not let one's luck slip; one should be able to offer one's heart completely when it recognises the guide intended for it as a true one.

"This sense of discernment cannot always be easily obtained from the outset, but the thirsting soul knows that it has found the water source that satisfies its longing. Its jubilation is great and the candidate can only resolve to follow this way which is suited to him and which will lead him where the soul aspires to go."
