Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, August 3, 2001- 10:00 a.m.

My dear child, the way to the goal is long and difficult. Neither hours nor days spent in this process should be counted. The aspiration to be united with the Divine is a latent state, which becomes an inherent part of life, [becomes] life itself, shall we say, at its most rewarding stage. When it [life] goes down this way, a significant step is taken. The guide intended for the aspirant appears in one way or another and a constructive work can then start. It is necessary to do the spadework and clean little by little. This action necessarily brings about painful reactions to the person concerned: this is the price to pay for his horizon to get clearer. Will and perseverance are the keywords in this business; patience bears its fruits.

"Easiness is an unknown notion in this system; the effort in itself generates noticeable results. We do not promise you the moon, we want to make you become clear-headed and to encourage you in a process capable of changing your life and beyond, with our blessings."
