Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, March 26, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

ou must let the turban man operate. As he has told you, his name does not matter. Call him 'The Venerable' if you consider that calling him turban man is not respectful enough.

"He is very rigorous; you will have to keep up. You have offered your own self; you should therefore accept the consequences. Rest assured, his kindness is legendary and you are not a victim, far from it. You should rather be thankful for the grace you are receiving.

"We all are very happy with what is happening to you. Your life is fraught with so much suffering; we would like to see you less overwhelmed.

"Rejoice for what is happening at the ashram. It also, in a way, has started a new life. The majority of the abhyasis have become much more mature and they become aware of inner reality.

"Cover this place with your love and visualise it increasingly expanding, as wished by our Beloved; see you soon."
