Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, September 10, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

Isolate yourself from worldly life and noise; here, in this blessed space, the best of one's being can be expressed. Noting down these messages is not a trivial matter. It should be emphasised that this is an important mission resulting not from your choice, but from ours. In such circumstances, it is not enough to have the desire; one must also be predestined for such a very special situation and comply with our laws, which is the case for you. Such an edifice cannot be developed without being wished for and supported by higher powers. These thousands of messages are not given in vain; our comments will be confirmed in the future.

"Difficult times are ahead for the world. Beyond the superficiality of modern life, there is a universe of beauty and peace in which today's human beings can reconnect with their innermost nature, away from worldly life and the pervading noise that is disturbing on many levels. This affects the physical body, but the disturbance goes beyond that. Wise are those who know how to set aside a time of isolation and meditation; in this way they stabilise their energies. The ensuing calm promotes a deep and delightful meditation for the soul. This achievement is their greatest asset, their true resource, and one that lends the noblest trajectory to an incarnation. All our fervent abhyasis are building for themselves a world of peace and beauty. Can they all imagine the great and beautiful things that take place in them on this extraordinary spiritual journey? Perseverance in their commitment facilitates the advancement and embellishment of the soul. Everyone is supported and carried accordingly. May all our brothers and sisters be blessed and strengthened."
