Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, July 11, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

Our dear Janaki epitomises discretion, watching over her son with much love and exemplary lightness. She remains in the background, yet she accompanies him daily on his difficult path. In this too, love is a force; what would this world be if it were not for this power whose action is unparalleled? Bonds created on Earth are very strong in some cases, continuing into the beyond and translating into wonderful stories that go down in the ledgers of time. We love these stories, and they can be reassuring to humans who sometimes feel left to their own fate. 'The beyond', as it is called, is full of promise; that which is good here below is preserved as a true asset for the beneficiary. Our Mission is promising, and we often allude to its future, as it has a brilliant one going forward, which encourages us to work even more in this direction.

"Spirituality will become widespread to meet the growing call of hearts that are in need. Nowadays a true spiritual path is being sought to meet a call of the heart — rather than to comply, as was the case for many in the past, to a social code that was thought to represent a necessary and reassuring power. True mystics have always existed. From time immemorial, noble and great figures have left their mark in the history of this world. A true call of the heart allows for a clear-headed commitment and the confidence to move towards the goal with faith and ardour. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light. All are able to embark on this path; the way is open, and they are expected. Blessings."
