Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, July 24, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

The Sahaj Marg way opens up broad prospects, much more than it seems. Without great fanfare, without apparent pomp, the work is done at a very subtle and effective level. Truly committing oneself opens up opportunities that unfold over time. A spiritual path is not simple, in that it must be won over through some degree of commitment. Love, sincerity and surrender are the basis of a process that continues over time. Time is a human being's surest ally and can produce the best results. All these comments repeated over time are meant to feed people's hearts; many of our brothers and sisters appreciate these messages and strengthen themselves through this teaching. It is out of the ordinary and comes directly from the source. This source cannot dry up, as it is very powerful and thus desired for the good of this Mission. Time will reveal the importance and deep significance of the Mission's existence on Earth.

"Future times are being prepared. These writings are an expression of it, and the way of Sahaj Marg will be more and more important in this divine plan. Everything has its raison d'être; indeed, the world is at a turning point in its history, and choosing to evolve is the best possible option in an era that is so tormented that human beings have lost their sense of right and wrong. A spiritual path such as this helps people to better find their bearings and approach life under its best aspects. In this, only the positive side is to be considered; our abhyasis are gaining valuable time and this is worth some effort, which they will not regret. The future will show them the soundness of these comments. May they all be blessed!"
