Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, April 8, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried by this redeeming wave. These contacts have embellished your heart for so many years — do not feel embarrassed by the mention of this. Here, channelling was not enough; only a special relationship with our hearts has enabled this unique achievement — one that has been wished for by the entire hierarchy for the welfare of this spiritual Mission, supported and truly carried by the alliance of Masters. All here are attentive to its expansion in the world; its very positive effects are highly appreciated. We are expecting still more from this fourth Master, who is carried and entrusted by us in order to accomplish what is best and to permanently establish this spiritual Mission in the world. This aspect of life is essential: it has a moderating influence and allows for the extension of goodness, as it should be established on this Earth.

"Everything is so slow here below. It takes perseverance for values like those advocated in our path to be recognised and properly appreciated. What must be will be. That which is good always finds its rightful place, and such is the case for Sahaj Marg. Let us continue for some more time with these messages. They are awaited by many fervent hearts and we are happy for that. What you achieve every day, in spite of everything, is an act of love. It is well appreciated, you can be sure. It is spontaneous and fervent; there lies the essential basis for such work. But does our dearest scribe consider it work? Surely not! This is how it is, and we are appreciative.

"May all our abhyasis enjoy this very special teaching. Blessings to all."
