Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, March 30, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

Do not worry, as The Venerable has told you, nothing can change between us. We all wished this to be established with him. This is the best thing that could happen to you, even if all that is not easy to understand.

"Be like a gliding bird that makes use of the ascending currents. In a way, he manages your life from now on. We have prepared you to arrive at that. This is another transformation being carried out under his authority.

"Render thanks, my dear child. One day you will realise all the significance of this situation, which your human limitations prevent you from seizing.

"With time and the work which is operating in you, you will soon get the gist of it. Here, we all went through similar situations, where only confidence and surrender enabled us to advance."
