Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 16, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Today, more than ever, human beings need reference points in spirituality. It is not easy for them to remain serene amid the turbulence of this world, as they are destabilised by negative vibrations of all kinds. A spiritual process provides them with landmarks, and even a reason for being, when they go deeper into the laws of life in all their subtlety. Ceaseless ordeals cause them to grow, providing them with good reasons to discover the true meaning of an incarnation. It is never a simple matter, but where would the challenge lie if such were not the case? It is not easy for humans to understand and adapt to situations that are sometimes very dramatic and painful to endure. The recourse of faith is a precious aid; seeing only the good, the beautiful in everyone, also helps a person overcome the vagaries of existence, even if it is not easy.

"Following a spiritual path does not solve everything, but it helps make sense of things and allows one to better accept that which cannot be changed. To interiorise oneself and transcend, in a sense, the ups and downs of an incarnation makes one stronger in the face of adversity. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être? Everything must be considered from the standpoint of respect for the divine laws. Nothing is done in vain; nothing is hidden except the love that a fervent heart can distil in secret, benefitting others by creating a very positive aura around itself. Some places also carry special vibrations; there are many of them, although they are not always recognised as such. That does not matter. The divine laws operate in their own manner.

"This is how it is."
