Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 16, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Today we will be content with a heart-to-heart contact; so many of these messages are available to our brothers and sisters, who may use them as they like. To search beyond appearances, beyond form and substance, demonstrates a deep longing to unite with the Divine. There are so many aspects to be considered. How far does the abhyasi wish to go, and what is his or her motivation? One is not always truly aware of what one is doing and where this work is leading. Our spiritual way offers real progress; it is based on a vibratory reality that is capable of achieving much more than the aspirant can imagine. All aspirants benefit from this quest for the Divine. Some are advancing very quickly, others more slowly, but it is certain they derive the utmost benefit from it, which is exactly what we expect from this work.

"May the union of hearts be strengthened, uniting more and more abhyasis in a common outlook, far from the ugliness of material life where so many senseless acts occur, even though everything could be different. Let us work in this direction — nothing is impossible for the higher powers. They are even able to inspire these lines, which were unforeseen."
