Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 12, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Transcend all these problems and enjoy a few moments of peace and love. These contacts of ours, are they not a haven for your loving heart, totally surrendered to our presence which is constant and very attentive to your dear person. Do not feel embarrassed. These thousands of messages that have accumulated are clear evidence of the unique link that unites your heart with ours. The messages will remain a special asset for our Mission, defying time. Many upheavals will occur, as we have repeatedly said. Everything happens at the appropriate time, as planned by the Power that rules life not only on Earth, but also in the vast universe in which everything is absolutely rigorous. Non-compliance with these laws would create total chaos. At their own small level, human beings work at not respecting anything. They are not the only ones on Earth. Minimal attention on their part would, by now, be welcome in order to not add to the enormous havoc that is increasingly caused by the attraction of profit. An Earthly incarnation is a short passage. A wise person respects the parameters necessary for the general balance of all life that surrounds him or her, thus taking care of that which should be tended to, both for oneself and for the whole creation. All is connected and one with the Creator.

"May our abhyasis, at least, live in harmony with their surroundings. Thus will they behave as good citizens and good abhyasis. May all be blessed."
