Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, January 22, 2006

My daughter, you are perfectly discreet in our Mission. You have chosen to remain in the shadows rather than being visible; yet with time, you will get a place which you could not imagine – that is how it is.

"Remain serene and surrendered to the divine power; your Master is leading you on the best paths where your loving fervour can be expressed. Keep faith in life and in us who love you."
