Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 11, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

All these years of loyalty, commitment and above all, love, have created this very special bond between our hearts and generated this extraordinary heavenly manna. There have been so many messages, and they are a valuable asset to our Mission — the future will justify this statement, you can be sure. Do our abhyasis truly realise the uniqueness of this way! Its action takes place in all subtlety and transforms people for good reason, refining their perceptions and affirming their inner potential. The practice, the Mission books and then these messages have already yielded very positive results and will be perfectly suited for the life of the future. This world will experience unprecedented changes that will elevate humanity to a higher level of consciousness. This will include a general refinement along with a lessening of the violence, endless hatred and deleterious actions. Each incarnation prepares for the next; what will there be in the subsequent ones — or one, as the case may be? We will not go into details. Each person's life is unique and consistent with his or her destiny. This basic outline is developed according to divine requirements, in the very well-orchestrated context of humanity as a whole. Faith and surrender are necessary — we can only repeat it and ensure that through this the best is achieved for all our brothers and sisters. Such is the purpose of our ceaseless action.
