Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, August 20, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

There is a time for everything on Earth. The time of mercy and the blossoming of the human being will come. The expansion of consciousness occurs level by level; the highest level to be reached is still far ahead, but it is being prepared in our Mission for the general good. Nothing is done without reason — everything is counted and contributes to a planned advancement.

Very different worlds have existed, leaving an imprint that is significant even though it is not recognised. What matters is here and now. Our spiritual way takes into account the destiny of each person, shall we say. Real work is being done, putting into place satisfactory elements to confirm the importance of this in the future. Every step taken contributes to the fulfilment of this far-reaching program. To sense it is not the most important thing; one must experience it inwardly and seek to deepen that which is felt, that which transforms the being in its subtlest nature. The elevation of the soul leads to the discovery of the true self; a whole world actually lies there. It is up to each one to progress towards the goal. Our constant help is there, with all the love that is possible.

This is how it is.
