The Medium: "Forgive me, Venerable, for this kind of reaction, but I need some concrete results to remotivate myself, even if they are not visible in me."

There are results in you which are not visible. Can you access the consciousness of each one of your cells? Do you control each one of your organs, as well as your subtle bodies? So, what do you blame us for? For not being in flesh and bone in front of you explaining everything to you?

"Your Beloved has told you yesterday that he also went through periods of discouragement and rebellion.

"Nothing is so simple; everything must be earned, little by little. Persevere along the lines of the few guidelines we give you; they will certainly yield results.

"Nature does its work slowly, imperceptibly. A tree does not cover itself with leaves overnight. Observe nature in spring and you will understand the phenomenon.

"Be surrendered to the divine will which operates for your good, no matter what you may think and in spite of appearances."
