Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, October 1, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Forget this world and all the negative aspects on a being's journey towards his or her highest destiny. Our comments are always the same; musical notes are limited, and yet they can produce unparalleled masterpieces that defy time. The purpose of these writings is to nourish souls in their deep aspiration to rise, to unite with the Divine, with what it represents as well as the great and unique aspects it brings on the journey towards the Eternal — this space beyond human reach, which they imagine without being able to truly understand it. How could they? The world of the Spirit is a unique place where the purest souls are evolving under the guidance of the "Great Ones". Humans dream of it, but it is not easily accessible. To each one their destiny; the way lies before them, with no shortage of signs to show the right path. We ensure that the path is followed for the good of all our abhyasis.

Very special blessings to all.
