Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 7, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Let us repeat once again: these messages are authentic and the only ones that will remain a valuable asset of the Mission. New prospects are opening up, and our beloved son Kamlesh will know how to make the most of them and adapt to the needs of the times. He will be inspired as needed to do what is best and to act in the right way — we trust him fully. These writings are the only ones that truly emanate from the Source. In the future he will be inspired, thanks to our care. We are warning him once again that there are many imitators. He holds the golden key, the sacred key that connects him to our hearts. May he be blessed and strengthened in his sacred undertaking.

To all, the best.
