Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, October 18, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Join us in this space that cannot be touched by the vicissitudes of life. Here, peace and harmony allow this extraordinary contact; it will remain unique no matter what happens. Beyond channelling there is a very special bond between our hearts, and it will not be replicated. Enough messages will have been given to meet the needs of our Mission. We will communicate differently with our dear Kamlesh when it becomes necessary to reassure and strengthen him in his actions. Major decisions will have to be taken in the future, and they will be decisive for an unprecedented expansion of this beautiful Sahaj Marg Mission. Time clarifies situations and gives them their full meaning. This way of the heart will continue to surprise, and its effects will keep growing, carried by changes in line with future requirements — all in good time. To everyone, the best there is; everything falls into place for the best.

Very special blessings to all.
