Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 22, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

All this turbulence concerning your succession, [dear daughter], is not new; we are not there yet. Our dear son Kamlesh will be inspired in due time so as to be able to discern whether something is genuine or not. This frenzy is not new. You did not ask for anything; our contacts began even before you became an abhyasi with no intention but to respond to a call from your heart. The reading of Reality at Dawn was enough to connect your heart to ours, in a definitive way and for good reasons. Is it not said, "What must be will be"! Dear soul, enjoy these blessed contacts which are hereafter felt by our brothers and sisters who are truly committed to this initiatory journey, one that brings many results — most often hidden, but real in their action.

You are, and will remain, the medium who opened the way of this long journey of messages which is so very blessed by the Hierarchy of Sahaj Marg, this way that is so dear to us all. Its action will be more and more precise and will constitute a real advancement in the understanding of phenomena related to this kind of communication.

Blessings to all.
