Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, February 26, 2017

My dear daughter, this very difficult time is trying for you; the force that drives you is induced by an extraordinary love. You have been united with our hearts for so long that this ritual is part of your life, and it will occur again one day, in another way, to help our dear and great son Kamlesh. May he benefit from it for a long time for the good of a great number, as intended by the higher power.

Very special blessings for all our brothers and sisters.
