Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, March 1, 2017 — 10:30 a.m.

Be at peace, whatever may happen. Your heart is carried by Love — the very love it generates and which inspires our own hearts. This Sahaj Marg Mission is privileged; its Master is the chosen one of our hearts. We support him and we inspire him accordingly by showing him the best way for this Mission to reach the apotheosis, as desired and foreseen in the framework of an unprecedented expansion. In a certain way, we carry him — we will guide him to the pinnacle. All is well; faith and love remain the major assets here, and our dear and great son Kamlesh is our hero, guarded and carried in the most beautiful manner. This is how it is.

Very special blessings to all.
