Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, March 5, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, the time of this rendezvous is "sacred" in a sense; it brings together and reunites many hearts in an extraordinary surge of love. Time passes, and many of our brothers and sisters remain faithful — this message has become a ritual and over time it will remain necessary and inspiring. Our scribe has worked with great love — such is the hallmark of ardent hearts who are able to give without reserve. Everything has its importance in this Mission. Our great son and Master, Kamlesh, manages and perfectly masters this vast organisation, and he will lead it very far and very high in its achievement. Therefore, all is well.

May all hearts come together in a vast unifying movement. To all, the best.

Babuji Maharaj