Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, March 6, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

This moment brings forth excellence: the meeting of fervent hearts. By reading these messages every day, our brothers and sisters are immersed in a subtle and redeeming energy that leads the soul to the highest level of purity, that which one hopes for in this life. Ample opportunities are offered to all hearts that are motivated; this way is still very far from revealing all its benefits. They will manifest in all their subtlety in due course, thus allowing each and every abhyasi to attain the goal in this incarnation. To each one, peace, love and sufficient commitment to achieve the best.

Special blessings to all.
