Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 7, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Inside you lie peace and harmony. These support you through this daily contact, bringing the fragrance of an extraordinary love that is conducive to such a state of receptivity. In this way, we communicate according to the divine laws; the path of Sahaj Marg holds enough strength to express itself in this manner. In the future, it will increasingly become a reference, and it will enlighten souls in search of the noblest goal amid a distressed humanity that is seeking the appropriate way to give it solid foundations. A new world will emerge in the future, one that is strong enough to plan for laws that are capable of transforming it. Everything is being put into place accordingly. May all be effectively committed and contribute to this unprecedented transformation.
