Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, March 13, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Your present situation is not easy to bear, but you are surrounded as we wish, my dear daughter. These messages pass through your heart, inspired by our hearts. This beautiful story is not ordinary. Our Mission benefits from this significant asset, and our scribe was chosen by the entire Hierarchy — this should be borne in mind. Sahaj Marg has many resources, and we are happy to see the extent to which it helps our abhyasis. We hope to go ever further in winning over hearts and, above all, in achieving an unprecedented expansion of consciousness. The hierarchy of Masters is attentive to all that is being done — at all levels — and to that which is currently being accomplished in Hyderabad. Our dear great Kamlesh is attentive to it and will watch over it more and more; the future [of the Mission] in some way is over there, even as its power in the world becomes more precise and evident.

Special blessings to all.
