Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, January 31, 2013 — 11:00 a.m.

The Grand-Master's birth anniversary is approaching. Such days are to be considered in a very special manner; a subtle energy unfolds for the occasion, and beings who are refined and sensitive to those blessed moments can fully benefit from this. So must it always be in the future. More and more, these days will become a sacred reference, the milestones of our Mission. Large gatherings unite our abhyasis; they create a very subtle aura that greatly benefits all. Venerating the Masters is one of the essential points in our Mission. Are the Masters not conveyors of the Divine, and the representation on Earth of a higher power!

May all our abhyasis fully realise it and enjoy a very special vibration on these days. Some of them have undergone special conditions and experiences during these big gatherings. Regardless of what manifests and is sensed at the human level, a significant vibratory charge runs through the whole Mission.

Over the course of time, may these great moments remain an important spiritual necessity for all, fostering in them a fitting openness of heart capable of conveying their innermost feelings. May our blessings on these birthday celebration days favourably touch the hearts of all our brothers and sisters who are sensitive to their very special impact. We wish for each of them the desired revelation — one that is beneficial in every respect.
